

Delbert E. Winn - Pictorial Profile
Phone: 770- 993-1732 / dellwinn@gmail.com

Mr. Winn (far left) watches South Dakota Governor, Mr. Richard Kneip, sign legislation that Mr. Winn drafted and lobbied for on behalf of Mr. Winn's client, Chevron Oil Company, in Pierre, SD. Prominent members of the state legislature and oil and gas industry watch the signing.

Mr. Winn is congratulated by Mr. Antonio Guzman, President of the Dominican Republic, in Santo Domingo after negotiating a revenue sharing agreement for the first oil and gas exploration project in his country by Mr. Winn's client, Fluor Oil and Gas Corporation.

Mr. Winn (light sensitive glasses) is greeted by Mr. Narishima Rao, Prime Minister of India, in New Delhi to show India's appreciation for the assistance Mr. Winn and Mr. Winn's client, InterDigital Communications, Inc., gave to India during the Lalore earthquake.

Mr. Winn (white shirt and tie) with Indian Telecommunications Minister, Mr. Ram Villas Paswan (to Mr. Winn's left) in New Delhi prior to discussions regarding deployment of a new broadband cellular technology in India.

Mr. Winn (third from left) with former Indian Prime Minister, Mr. Narishima Rao (center) in New Delhi after discussing finalizing a multi-billion dollar telecommunications project in India. Also present are Indian Member of Parliament, Mr. Kasu Krishna Reddy (far left), and representatives from ArrayComm, Inc. and Kyocera Corporation of Japan.

Mr. Winn (center) with Senator Larry Pressler, R-SD (to Mr. Winn's left) author of the "Pressler Amendment" which prohibited sales of F16 fighter jets to Pakistan, in Washington, DC after discussing overseas wireless telecom, call center, and deep water port projects for Mr. Winn's clients.

Mr. Winn (standing center) with Indian Minister of State for Communications and IT, Smt. Sumitra Mahajan (seated) in New Delhi after discussions with Mr. Winn's client, Paradyne Corporation, regarding high speed internet service deployment in India.

Mr. Winn (far left) with Khun Sutham Malila (white shirt), President of the Telephone Organization of Thailand ("TOT") in Bangkok during discussions with Mr. Winn's clients, SciTech (Thailand) Co., Ltd. and Paradyne Corporation, regarding high speed internet service deployment in Thailand